

Auxiliary Operating Duties (Handsignaller): Initial Course IS05

Duration of course: 1 Day

Maximum no. of Candidates: 8

Course aims:

This course is intended for candidates who wish to act as Handsignallers on Network Rail's infrastructure

Objectives:

Upon successful completion of the course candidates will be able to:

- Communicate effectively whilst undertaking Handsignaller's duties
- Carry out Handsignaller's duties competently in accordance with the Rule Book and industry standards
- Identify Signals and Signalling
- Identify the equipment required by a Handsignaller

Other information

- Following successful completion of the course Railsafe Training will register your certification with the NCCA
- Re-certification is required every two years and consists of a one day classroom based course and assessment

Venue

Our modern training centre in Gateshead or we can arrange training at a location to suit your needs

Course Content:

- Introduction
- Messages concerning safety
- Railway signalling and signal identification
- Handsignalling equipment
- Duties in Connection with Defective or Disconnected Signals
- Duties in connection with single line working
- Duties in connection with protection of engineering work on a line not under possession
- Duties in connection with temporary block working
- Theory practical and Verbal assessments
- Feedback